Prairie Vision's 19th Annual Shooting Star Trail Bike Ride

Saturday, June 24, 2017

Ride begins and ends at LeRoy, MN at the Trailhead

Registration begins at 6:30 a.m. with Ride Start at 7:00/8:30 a.m.

A great opportunity to ride with family and friends through Prairie Vision country. The communities of LeRoy, Taopi, Adams, Rose Creek, and Austin are working together to host the 19th Annual Shooting Star Trail Bike Ride. This ride covers flat terrain, wild flowers, oak savannah, tall grass prairie, corn and soybean fields, small towns, and country life. Checkpoints and the rural towns of Rose Creek, Austin, Ostrander, Taopi, and Adams are a part of the routes. The 20 and 40-mile rides are on bike trail only. Organizers have chosen rural blacktop roads for you to enjoy. Excellent rest stops with food and water are provided. All routes are fully-supported, some are patrolled with motorcycles and are fully-supported with sag wagon.
